Arrival of corporates into retailing

†1991. SHRI SURENDRA LATH: Will the Minister of CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that with the arrival of major corporates into retailing, particularly of fruit and vegetables and provisions, small-time retailers have been badly hit;

(b) if so, whether the arrival of majors into retailing would entail unemployment and whether Government has formulated any policy to tackle it; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI TASLIMUDDIN): (a) to (c) There is no restriction on the entry of the big corporate houses and other domestic investors into the retail sector. The organised retail sector would reduce the cost of intermediation on account of economies of scale benefiting consumers and producers/ farmers. It also helps in establishment of cost effective supply chains. Besides, the organised retailing sector would create more employment opportunities and improve the quality of employment in the long run. The share of organised retailing in the total retail trade is very small and it would not have any major adverse impact on retail outlets in the unorganised sector. No action seems to be necessary at present to formulate any separate policy to tackle the issue.
